DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 3/18/03 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each U.S. and foreign patent; each publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the foreign reference and non-patent literature referred to therein has not been considered because the data is not accessible from the disk submitted.

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference sign(s) not mentioned in the description: "185". A proposed drawing correction, corrected drawings, or amendment to the specification to add the reference sign(s) in the description, are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2672

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-4, 6-9 and 11-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Louis Rosenberg, U.S. Patent 6,061,004, 5/2000.

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application.

Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

As per independent claim 1, Rosenberg discloses sensing manipulation of a user object (abstract; col. 6, ll. 44-56); controlling the displayed position or shape of the articulated graphical image in relation to the sensed manipulation (abstract; Fig. 1A); and when the articulated graphical image interacts with a graphical object, changing the relationship between the displayed position or shape of the articulated graphical image and the sensed manipulation (col. 2, ll. 25-40).

As per dependent claim 2, Rosenberg discloses when the articulated graphical image interacts with a graphical object, the displayed position or shape, of the articulated graphical image is calculated by an algorithm (col. 4, ll. 9-20).

As per dependent claim 3, Rosenberg discloses the algorithm uses constraints to calculate the displayed position or shape of the graphical image (col. 2, ll. 19-25; col. 3, ll. 58-61; col. 18, ll. 10-32).

As per dependent claim 4, Rosenberg discloses the algorithm uses numerical methods to calculate the displayed position or shape of the graphical image (col. 18, ll. 15-34).

As per dependent claim 6, Rosenberg discloses the user object is articulatable (Fig. 1A "110").

As per dependent claims 7 and 11, Rosenberg discloses the user object is capable of providing a haptic sensation to the user (col. 2, ll. 29-31).

As per dependent claims 8 and 12, Rosenberg discloses the haptic sensation is related to the interaction of the graphical image and the graphical object (col. 2, ll. 30-40).

As per independent claim 9, discloses sensing manipulation of a user object (abstract; col. 6, ll. 44-56); controlling the displayed position or shape of the articulated graphical image in relation to the sensed manipulation (abstract; Fig. 1A); and when the articulated graphical image interacts with a graphical object, changing the relationship between the displayed position or shape of the articulated graphical image and the sensed manipulation (col. 2, ll. 25-40) by calculating a position or shape of the graphical image using an algorithm using numerical methods (col. 18, ll. 15-34).

3. Claims 5 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
